Brief or Physical Description	Chromed forged blade etched one side with the dedication to "The Few" and the many who helped make victory possible. Below this is a group of Royal Air Force personnel, symbolising the team work which made a 3-1 odds-against victory possible. The reverse side of the blade shows a "Scramble" scene, with Pilots running towards Mk.1 Hurricanes with Mk.1 Spitfires flying overhead. The pommel takes the form of the victors garland surrounding, on one side, the portrait of the late Sir Winston Churchill and, on the other, the Royal Air Force insignia, together with the words "Their Finest Hour". The sword grip is of rosewood and made in the shape of a windsock. The cross guard shape is based upon the Royal Air Force wings, symbolising flight, speed and power.
